FROM

K. SHANKARANARAYANA RAO, ESQ., M.A., B.L., GOVERNMENT ADVOCATE IN MYSORE,
BANGALORE

22. DEC. 1924

To

The Secretary to the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore,
Local & Legislative Departments,
BANGALORE.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that Government Order No. J.1282-3/Cts. 90-16-2 dated the 16th October 1916, authorises the Government Advocate to purchase, without the previous sanction of Government, books suitable for a Law Library, provided that the value of each book does not exceed Rs.10/- and the expenditure can be met from the sanctioned Budget allotment. As the prices of almost all Law Books and Law Journals have been very much enhanced since the passing of the said order, and as no standard Law Book can be purchased now within the limit of Rs.10/- fixed in that order, I am obliged to apply for the sanction of Government every time a book has to be purchased for my office, which necessarily involves some delay. Under the circumstances, I request that Government may kindly modify the said order, either by delating the limit of Rs.10/- fixed therein, so as to bring the rules into line with those in force in British India (Vide Rule (e) of Appendix B B B B of the Civil Account Code, Vol.I, which states that "Judicial Officers may purchase books suitable for a Law Library within their Budget allotment, without obtaining previous sanction of Government") or by altering the limit and fixing the same at about Rs.30/- per book, so that I may have to apply for the sanction of Government, in exceptional cases. I request that early orders of Government may be kindly obtained in the matter.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Government Advocate.
